THE LATEST.

Returns received yesterday show that the Democratic landslide in Tuesday's elections is unprecedented in the history of Kentucky politics. The Republicans lost many counties and districts that were never known to fall them. The largest Democratic gains came from the mountain section of the State. The Republicans elected only one State Senator. They succeeded in defeating the Democratic nominee in the Campbell county district. The Democrats elected E. Bertram for the Senate in the Sixteenth district, which has heretofore had a Republican majority of nearly 3,000. The next State Senate will stand twenty-six Democrats to twelve Republicans. The House of Representatives, according to incomplete returns, shows seven Democrats and twenty-four Republicans were elected.

Suit was filed in the Circuit Court at Lexington by G. W. McMillan and thirty-two other men against the Burley Tobacco Society, Clarence Lebus, G. A. Brooks, J. M. Pank, the Clark County National Bank, Citizens' National Bank and People's State Bank, asking for a receiver. The plaintiffs allege they pooled their crops of tobacco in 1906 and also in 1907 under the agreement that when a fixed price was obtained for their tobacco, proceeds were to be divided pro rata among the respective interests, less necessary expenses of handling the crop, and that they did not receive all they were entitled to collect.

Quiet prevailed in Jackson last night. The Sheriff took charge and prevented further rioting. Judge Redwine promises to wage war on the "blind tigers." He denies that he is responsible for the crimes in Breathitt. While the troops were on the way to Crockettville they were fired on from ambush. No arrests are probable. The troops will return to Lexington to-day. Two stores were partly demolished in Tuesday night's election jubilee. John Blanton says it was he instead of his brother, Tilden, who killed Noble in the election trouble Tuesday.

Commander Robert E. Peary was yesterday voted a gold medal by the National Geographic Society for having reached the North Pole. The board of managers of the society at a meeting accepted unanimously the report of its subcommittee of scientists, who had examined the explorer's records and proofs, and found them to be corroborative of his claim that he had reached the pole.

Almost completely baffled as yet by one of the most mysterious diseases with which it was ever confronted and already which has assumed alarming proportions in this country, especially in the South, medical scientists began at Columbia, S. C., to grapple with "pellagra," concerning which medical authorities know but little.

President Davila, of Honduras, has received several cable messages at Tegucigalpa from the State Department at Washington, informing him that the United States and Mexico are watching very closely the course being followed by the Honduras Government in connection with the revolution in Nicaragua.

Following the failure of Tammany to elect any of its ticket except Judge Gaynor, rumors of a reorganization of the Democratic party in New York were circulated. Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, denied that he intended to give up his leadership.

The evidence in the suit contesting the will of A. O. Brannan was completed yesterday and eight hours has been allowed for the argument which will begin this morning after Judge Batson has read his instructions.

Samuel A. Norman, of Mayfield, filed a petition in bankruptcy at Paducah, giving his liabilities as $199,325.53, with assets of $665 and seventy-five shares of stock in the Mayfield Woolen Mills.

The officials of the New York Central railroad made an application to the Public Service Commission for the second district of Albany, for authorization to issue $44,658,000 of new stock.

Because his sweetheart refused to allow him to call, Earl Mitchell, a prominent young farmer of Herndon, shot himself through the head, inflicting fatal injuries.

A discarded Italian lover shot the wife of his rival near Bluefield, Va., and after the woman had wounded him the husband shot and killed the unlucky suitor.

President Taft wound up a busy day in Birmingham, Ala., at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and left for Macon, Ga., where he will make his next stop on his long journey.

One passenger was killed and sixty-five others were injured in Des Moines, Iowa, when a street car turned turtle after leaving the track.

Corrected returns in the Louisville majority race indicate that W. O. Head wins by something over 2,000.

HEAD WINS BY MORE THAN 2,000

Twelfth Was His Banner Ward With About 1,700.

Independent Ticket Cut Very Little Figure.

Total Vote Falls Far Short of Registration.

W. O. HEAD WINS HIS RACE.

From the corrected totals in the vote for Mayor in Louisville Tuesday, William O. Head, the Democratic nominee for Mayor, defeated James F. Grinstead, by 2,316 plurality and reversing a Republican majority of about 4,600 for Mayor two years ago, an achievement in which the Democrats of Louisville take pride. The general result of the election is in no way changed, the entire general ticket put out by the Democrats winning in both the city and the county, losing only two School Trustees, two Constables, two Magistrates and three Representatives to the Legislature out of the whole list of candidates. The Democrats carried the First, Second, Third, Sixth, Eleventh and Twelfth wards and the Republicans carried the Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth wards. The first ward gave Mr. Head a plurality of 729 votes; the Second, 1,280; the Third, 237; the Sixth, 75; the Eleventh, 901; and the Twelfth, 1,694.

Mayor Grinstead carried the Fourth by 265; the Fifth by 361; the Seventh by 3; the Eighth by 75; the Ninth by 379; the Tenth by 1,452.

It will be noted that the Republican nominee fell down in the center wards, where they felt confident they would poll a sizable vote. The downtown wards reversed themselves. The negro wards, the Ninth and Tenth, gave the biggest majorities the Republicans got, but even that vote was disappointing to them.

As To Plurality.

So far as pluralities are concerned, the Sixth and Seventh were almost a standoff, Mr. Head carrying the Sixth by 7 and Mr. Grinstead the Seventh by 3. The Twelfth was the Democratic banner ward, rolling up a plurality of nearly 1,700. The Second came along with nearly 1,300, too. The only really sizable plurality for Mr. Grinstead was in the Tenth, where he got 1,452.

The vote for the two Independent tickets must have been a revelation to the two candidates who led them. If the figures are correct, and they appear to be, Owen Tyler the Independent Democrat, got a total of 981 votes in the twelve wards. The Twelfth was his banner ward, with a total of 135, with the Third next, 114, and the Fourth third with 111. The Fourth is a Republican ward normally. This must have been a disappointing race to the Citizens' ticket, members of which closed a vote of at least 5,000 and bets having been made, it is said, on that figure.

Mr. Todd, the Independent Republican candidate, received an average of one vote to the ward, the first giving him four and seven wards giving him none.

The fate of the two tickets would seem to indicate that the Independent candidate is not popular as a vote getter.

Not Up To Registration.

A comparison of the registration and the vote would also seem to indicate that either the voters take more interest in qualifying to exercise their suffrage or that the party workers do not devote so much zeal in getting out the vote on election day as they do in getting certificates into the hands of the voters on registration day. A total of 48,445 votes were cast for the three candidates for Mayor out of a total of about 55,000 or 56,000 registered.

In the races for the entire district, including county judges, the Democrats seem to have led the ticket with an apparent plurality of 3,855, with John E. Evans, Republican, second, with a plurality of 3,432, and Joseph M. Huffaker, candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, third, with a plurality of 3,273. Practically all the other Democratic nominees won by over 2,000, notwithstanding the fact that the opposition's fire was centered on some of them.

The scarcest article at the city hall after Mr. Head takes his seat November 17 will be Republican officeholders. City Attorney Clayton B. Blakey and his staff of six or seven in the law department will be the only ones in the city hall which will be the new Mayor's term of four years one year ago. The Republicans will be ousted from the majority which they have held for the last two years will number several hundred. After they have walked out of office there will still remain many familiar faces in the building, owing to the fact that complete control of the city hall was never acquired by Mayor Head.

Among those who will remain are the staff of City Assessor Louis Summers. Mr. Summers goes over to the courthouse and another will be elected in his place by the General Council. Among the jury panels of pie in the city hall which will be the new Mayor's term of four years one year ago. The Republicans will be ousted from the majority which they have held for the last two years will number several hundred. ty under the control of the Mayor is the Health Department. There will be changes there. The Board of Public Safety also controls the Building Inspector's office. There probably will be a clean sweep there, including the head of the department, Marshall Morris, along with Allan Ramsay, R. Hewitt Green and others. The three members of the Board of Public Safety, along with the secretary and the stenographer, will, of course, be changed.

Six men are employed in the Tax Receiver's office. All of these will make their exit as the Democrats take possession. Including the department's head, H. H. McCulloch. There are only four men employed in the City Treasurer's office. They will make way for Capt. Andrew Sea and his assistants.

Many citizens will be retired to private life in the Board of Public Works. The personnel of the board will be changed. There will be a new City Engineer and changes of importance in this branch of the city government. John Chambers is the present City Engineer. All of these offices are under the control of the Board of Public Works. "Zeno" Parker, the negro elevator conductor at the hall, announced yesterday that he was ready to move when the term of the Mayor expired in the next two weeks.

License Board Positions.

In the office of the License Board there are twelve employees, all of whom are Republicans, having been appointed to succeed that number of Democrats the same day the latter were given the political axe. They will be swept out of the office as soon as the Mayor and the other officers take their places. Capt. J. Moss Terry, the secretary of the board, is a staunch Democrat, whose term of office does not expire until 1911. Formerly the license inspectors were appointed for a term, but the Republican change of the rule, so that they might be removed.

Another removal will be that of John C. Struss, brother of Councilman Struss, who was appointed to the Democratic victory will claim in the Mayor's office, Mr. Grinstead, Paul Burlingame and Walter Craft, the secretary and the assistant secretary.

In the street cleaning department under the direction of the Board of Public Works, eight men will make their exit from the office of the department proper, including Superintendent Critchfield. The two clerks of the board.

BRECKINRIDGE MEETS MILWARD

LEXINGTON EDITOR SAYS HE REPEATED CHARGE.

INVITED INTO A BUGGY.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 3.—(Special)—Desha Breckinridge, editor of the Lexington Herald, and Stanley Milward, member of the State Board for Charitable Institutions, met to-day for the first time since Mr. Breckinridge, a few days ago, and repeatedly charged that he had invited Mr. Milward into a buggy and had stopped some distance from the curb and beckoned to us to go to him which he did not do. He asked us to get in his buggy, which we did not do.

"Yesterday as we were standing on Main street talking to a gentleman from Bourbon county, Stanley Milward drove by and stopped some distance from the curb and beckoned to us to go to him which he did not do. He asked us to get in his buggy, which we did not do.

"We answered in language which we fear our most friendly critic would not publish, but for publication in the columns of the Herald that it was a lie and that he knew it.

"He said: 'Go and ask father about it. He will not believe he would lie to you.'

"We answered that we were not going to ask his father, that his father did not know anything except what he had told him; that his statement was utterly false and that he must go through the brand we had put on him. He drove and we returned to the curb.

"We publish an account of this conversation, in violation of our usual rule, so that at no time in the future there can be any question of what took place and that ten years after it took place and after our death no false and malignant slander may be uttered in regard to it.

"We answered that we were not going to ask his father, that his father did not know anything except what he had told him; that his statement was utterly false and that he must go through the brand we had put on him. He drove and we returned to the curb.

MANY COUNTIES SHOW REVERSAL

Republican Strongholds Carried by Democrats.

Bertram Defeats Nell In Sixteenth District.

Next Senate Will Stand Twenty-six To Twelve.

LOWER HOUSE 76 TO 24.

Such a reversal of politics in Kentucky as took place Tuesday is unprecedented in the history of the State. Democrats won in counties that have been considered for years bulwarks of Republicanism. While Christian county is one of the most notable instances of the change the voters made from Republican to Democratic rule, the more complete returns from the mountain districts make Democrats wonder with astonishment how such things could be.

In the Sixteenth Senatorial district, composed of the counties of Adair, Russell, Clinton, Cumberland and Wayne, the returns indicate that E. Bertram, Democrat, has defeated Dr. L. C. Nell for State Senator by about 100 majority. This district has been heretofore over 2,000 Republican.

The Republicans only succeeded in electing one State Senator in Tuesday's elections. It appears that Nagel, Republican, has defeated Donelon, Democrat, in the Campbell county district. With the election of Bertram, however, the Senate will stand as figured yesterday morning, twenty-six Democrats and twelve Republicans. This will give the Democrats a two-thirds majority in the Senate.

The House of Representatives will stand comparatively as estimated yesterday morning, seventy-six Democrats and twenty-four Republicans. There are one or two close districts that will take the official count to decide the winner. These changes will hardly affect the Democratic majority, as one of the districts where the race is very close between Caudill, Democrat, and Hogg, Republican, is the Floyd, Letcher and Knott districts, where the chances are said to favor Caudill.

SHAW AND TRACEY TIED IN JUDGE'S RACE.

Republican and Democratic Candidates in Kenton Got Same Number of Votes.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 3.—Complete returns received by the Kenton County Board of Elections show that both Judge William McD. Shaw, Republican, and Tracey, Democrat, have received the same number of votes for Judge of the Circuit Court of Kenton county. Each man received 7,153 votes. The leaders of both sides are still contending that there can be no contest and that their own man had won. Both sides say that the official count, which will be made to-morrow, will show that their man "got there first."

Disputed ballots have been brought into the worthy battle and there is likely to be a lively time hereabouts the day of the election. The Kenton County Board of Elections finds that some error has been made in the unofficial count. The Republicans contend that errors were made in Covington by reason of ignorance of the officials in determining the vote in the race for Aldermen, the Democrats, receiving a show from which of Ludlow many ballots were mutilated, and that if these had been kept the vote would have shown Tracey the winner. So it goes on and will go on until to-morrow night, when the official vote will be known.

SHOCK TO REPUBLICANS.

Loss of Muhlenberg County Caused a Big Surprise.

Central City, Ky., Nov. 3.—(Special)—The Republicans of Muhlenberg county have received a shock from the fact that they have not recovered. The Democrats are almost as much surprised at the landslide, however, very much more so than the Republicans. While the Democrats hoped for victory they anticipated no such majority, and the Republicans were not prepared to hear that the Democrats had their forces well organized and had thoroughly impressed the people with the fact that after

PARIS AGOG OVER MME. STEINHEIL'S TRIAL

JUDGE LIMITS NUMBER ADMITTED TO COURTROOM.

ACCUSED OF MURDER OF HUSBAND AND STEPMOTHER.

PRISONER PLACED ON STAND.

Paris, Nov. 3.—Not since 1902, when Frederic and Therese Humbert were convicted of a $12,000,000 swindle, has a trial in Paris excited the intense interest exhibited in the case of Madame Adolphe Steinhil, which was opened before Judge De Valles in the Seine Assize Court to-day.

Mme. Steinhil is on trial for her life, charged with the murder of her husband and her step-mother, Mme. Japy. The alleged motive is found in the defendant's hatred for her step-mother and a desire to rid herself of the husband in order that she might marry Maurice Bordenel, a wealthy merchant who had been married to her step-mother. The talent and attractiveness of the woman, combined with the mystery of her career and her connections with persons high in the public life of France, have fed the popular imagination and led the public to believe that the most startling crime was imminent.

Judge De Valles had received 2,000 applications for seats in the courtroom, but he arbitrarily refused all with the exception of those made for members of the press, the bar and others directly concerned with the trial. To these were added the first 100 persons who, standing in line, had been given admission to the courtroom.

The law provides for public admission to the trial of a murder case, but in chambers and the admission of the 100 mentioned met this requirement of the law to-day. In the hope of securing one of these coveted places many men and women stood before the court entrance throughout last night, and places in the line commanded as high as $200.

In refusing the many applications for admission to the trial, Judge De Valles did not propose to tolerate repetition of previous scandals by turning the present proceedings into a music hall performance.

Most of to-day's session was occupied with the selection of a jury and the reading of the indictment. The examination of the prisoner being late in the afternoon.

Redfern Corsets

Are constructed simply, exactly as they should be. A corset properly designed—that is, with scientific knowledge of the anatomy of the human form—requires only that the corset shall be, if for a stout, medium or slender woman, cut specifically for that type. There is no necessity for the wearer to adjust this corset to any one place. All parts of the figure are comfortably taken care of in the corset shape. All that is required of the wearer is to put the corset on and lace it properly. Prices tion unless a second attempt was made on the life of the members of the militia on the return trip to Jackson. Further developments regarding the burning of the home of Mrs. Mary Dean, who was in the house at the time, showed that as soon as the blaze was discovered it was rushed to the outside and called for help. He said his call was answered by a friend of the Dean family, who was on the side of the river, but that none of the neighbors would come to the scene of the fire, or in any way assist the occupants of the house in saving the contents.

Feared to Answer Call.
Those who responded to his call, however, informed him that they had seen a gang of men on the hillside in the vicinity of the Dean home just before the fire, and they realized that if they came to the house of the Dean family they would be killed.

Davidson said that while the fire was burning he discovered the gang on the hill in a small thicket, but as it numbered forty or fifty men he knew it would be useless to make any attack on them, as they would likely descend on the house and kill every member of the Dean family.

Sheriff Takes Charge.
Sheriff Brock Crawford took personal charge of the situation in Jackson, and to-night and the second pronounced celebration or "jubilee of the boys" did not take place. The streets of the town were practically deserted. Developments early this morning showed that the damage done by the rioters last night was heavier than at first anticipated. The fronts of the general stores of M. S. Crain and L. H. Whitaker were demolished from the explosion of dynamite bombs. No human lives were lost, but many human lives were not sacrificed in a mystery, as practically every house in the town was hit by bullet holes, while the large plate glass windows in the Breckinridge County Bank were demolished by bullets.

Sleep On Floor.
Every one of the houses fired into with shell-like structures and each one contained numerous occupants who had fled to their homes when the shooting began and who had retired and blown out the lights. In many instances the occupants of the houses built beds on the floor to sleep on there during the night. It is likely that this precaution saved many lives as in almost every instance the houses are below the street and the bullets entered the walls at about the height from the floors as were the beds.

Appeal To Peace Officer.
Many residents of the town who believe there would be a repetition of last night's demonstration to-night appeal to the peace officer.

SWEETHEART'S QUABREL.
Then Earl Mitchell Commits Suicide In Christian Church.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—Earl Mitchell, a young farmer of the Herndon neighborhood on a son of W. E. Mitchell, a Hopkinsville business man, died today from the effects of a pistol shot fired with suicidal intent. He had had a quarrel with his sweetheart. He asked permission yesterday to call on his last love, who she was unwilling to do so. He threatened to kill himself, but the young woman did not suppose that he was in earnest. Going to the top of a hill near Herndon he fired a bullet which entered his right temple and came out of the top of his head. He was removed to his home by persons from the church, but he died there today. He did not recover consciousness. The body will be buried here Thursday.

NOTED AUSTRIAN COUNT IS DEAD IN DENVER.
The Identity of Louis Von Vetters, Who Killed Crown Prince Rudolph and Wife, Sought.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 3.—Count Louis Von Vetters, of Austria, better known as the assassin of the crown prince of Austria, died in Denver today. Saturday. This became known today when the Austrian Consul, George Von Grivice, asked Mayor Speers' assistance in finding the body of the supposed nobleman.

Under what name he lived and died here is much a mystery as was the death of Crown Prince Rudolph, of Austria, and Countess Marie Vetters, who were killed in 1889. Louis Von Vetters, brother of the Countess, was the man who killed Rudolph and Marie. Although Louis Von Vetters had been a resident of Denver for several years after the death of the Crown Prince and the Countess Vetters, it is evident that the Austrian Government has kept track of him.

A cable from the Austrian foreign office to the American consul in Vienna, dated Saturday, advised that the Austrian Government had received information from the Austrian-Hungarian Consul at San Francisco conveyed the intelligence of the Count's death to the local Austrian Consul and gave instructions that the body be found and properly identified.

MAN HUNT IS ON IN WEST VIRGINIA.
Organized Posse Seek Two Negroes For Attempted Assault—One Killed.

Sutton, W. Va., Nov. 3.—Two organized parties of men are to-night scouring the hills of this county searching for two negroes believed to have aided in a recent assault on a white woman. The party was organized by a white man, who was killed in the assault.

According to Deputy Sheriff William Sutton, the party was organized by a white man, who was killed in the assault. The party was organized by a white man, who was killed in the assault.

He said that he had splendid offers in New York and a third in Washington, and continuing to make winning fight they put up for Mr. Haager.

BURGLAR LEAVES NOTE ACQUAINTING FAMILY OF VISIT.
Takes Neither Clothing Nor Silver, But Says He Must Have Money.

According to complaints received by the police from residents of the Highlands, criminals of a peculiar character are at work in that section of the city. During the past few days suspicious-looking persons have been seen prowling about the houses of the city, and in the morning the burglar had left a note on the door of the family, saying that he was the object of his quest. Tuesday night the burglar was locked out of the house, and yesterday morning a strange message was found on the back of the door.

LIBERAL APPROPRIATION FOR LIBRARY DESIRED.
Board of Trustees Sending Letters To Citizens Asking Their Co-operation.

Urging citizens to see the Alderman and Councilman from their respective districts to secure a liberal appropriation for more funds, the board of trustees of the Louisville Public Library has issued the following card:

"During the year ending August 31, 1909, the library received from the city a sum of $10,000. This was a record for the year. The library has a large number of books, and it is necessary to have more funds to purchase more books. We are asking you to help us by sending us a letter of support to the Alderman and Councilman from your district."

WANTS TROOPS TO PROTECT HIM

Ben Longnecker Appeals To Adjutant General.

Alleges County Officials Are Doing Nothing.

Railroad Commissioners Meet
To Make Assessments.

TRUSTEES ARE VICTIMIZED.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 3.—(Special).—Claiming that he has not been afforded the protection which was promised him, Ben Longnecker, of Mason county, has made an appeal to the military department of the State, Gen. P. P. Johnston, Adjutant General, received a communication this morning from Longnecker. He said that the county officials had not done anything to help him, Gen. Johnston will take up the matter with Gov. Wilson when the latter returns to Frankfort to-morrow.

When the trouble first began in Mason county and after Longnecker had been threatened, Acting Gov. Cox communicated with the sheriff of Mason county. The sheriff said he had offered to arrest the men charged with threatening Longnecker, but that the farmer had refused to give the names of the men who went to his house. Acting on this information from the sheriff the Governor declined to send soldiers to Mason county.

From reports received by the military department it seems that Longnecker's daughter made a gallant fight against the night riders using a Springfield army rifle vigorously.

Railroad Assessments.

The State Board of Railroad Commissioners is in session here to-day for the purpose of making the annual assessment of the tangible property of the railroads operating in the State, for the purpose of taxation. Chairman A. T. Siler and Commissioner L. P. Tarleton are here, but Commissioner John P. Karswell has not yet arrived from Breckenridge county. It is expected that the commission will be in session several days as representatives from nearly all of the railroads in the State are here to be heard.

The board considered to-day the Carrollton and Worthville road, which was represented by General Manager James Gayle, the Blue River and Company, represented by General Manager Oppenheimer and R. C. Stoll, and the Louisville and Nashville, represented by W. G. Dearing. Murray Hubbard is here for the Cincinnati Southern.

To Keep Out Republican Judge.

Although under the law the new Mayor of Frankfort takes office on December 5, it is probable that Mayor-elect James H. Polsgrove will not be officially sworn into office until January 1, when he retires as County Judge. In such an event Mayor Hume would hold on until January 1, when the terms of election the Mayor is elected to hold office until his successor is elected and qualified.

Judge Polsgrove could be sworn in on the 6th of next month, should he resign as County Judge. This would leave a vacancy in the County Judgeship, which would have to be filled by appointment by the Governor. As it is reasonable to suppose that Gov. Wilson would appoint some good Republican to hold down the three weeks or so of the job that would be left until Judge-elect R. C. Heist took office, the terms of election the Mayor is elected to hold office until his successor is elected and qualified.

The new City Council will convene and organize the first Monday in December.

Impersonating Supt. Crabbe.

An ingenious but unscrupulous book agent is reaping a harvest among the country school districts over the State where Superintendent of Public Instruction J. G. Crabbe is not personally known, by representing himself as Supt. Crabbe and selling books for the school a set of valuable books, which he is anxious to have introduced in the schools of the State. Of course, "Supt. Crabbe" is a name that is heavily welcome and the Trustees accept his recommendation of the books and generally buy them from him.

Teacher Gives Snap Away.

The trick that is being worked was unearthed by Thomas Mathison, a member of the State Department of Education, on a recent visit to Henry county. He was at one of the country schools, near Smithfield, and in conversation with the teacher, the latter happened to remark that the school had been charged to have a visit from Supt. Crabbe a few days before.

Now, at that time, Mr. Vinson knew that Supt. Crabbe was away in the Northwest with the other Southern States Superintendents, so he was dumbfounded and in amazement asked when Supt. Crabbe had been there.

The teacher reiterated that it had been there a few days, but that she added, "we bought a nice set of books from him for the school." Then it was that Mr. Vinson, a well-known school trustee, was duping the innocent country school trustees and he made thorough inquiry into the matter. He ascertained that a man had appeared at the school representing himself as Supt. Crabbe, and said that he was visiting a few of the schools in the county, and putting out a few books. Of course, the Trustees were glad to buy for the school the books that Supt. Crabbe recommended.

The Department of Education is making an effort to discover the identity of this book agent, and is warning the country teachers against him. They say they have no telling how many schools he may have victimized.

THOMAS MATHISON DIES OF URAEMIC POISONING.

Thomas Mathison, 50 years of age, a stone mason, died at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning at his home, 235 Duncan street, after a short illness of uraemic poisoning. He had been employed as a stone worker by the Deibel Stone Company. His wife and two sons and two daughters survive him.

The funeral will take place at the family residence at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and the burial will be in Eastern cemetery.

SEVERAL CLOSE CONTESTS.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 3.—(Special).—When the smoke and dust from yesterday's election which hurried into Fayette county had swept away to-day, it was found that all the Democratic candidates had been beaten except one. This lone survivor was Thomas C. Bradley, the Democratic candidate for Assessor, who smilingly emerges from the weak with the safe majority of at least sixty votes.

Prominent Young Man.

Mr. Bradley is a well-known young man of this city, a member of a prominent and aristocratic family, and son of the late Lee Bradley, who was for many years teller at the Phoenix National Bank. This was Mr. Bradley's first race for office, his only other appearance in politics having been as a member of police commissioners to which he was appointed by Mayor Skain.

Owes Election To Deputy.

Mr. Bradley is personally attractive and popular, but he perhaps owes his extraordinary success in this case largely to Capt. Richard Reid, who will be his chief deputy. He is a Confederate veteran, was formerly Assessor for several terms, and is the editor of the Tobacco Journal, the red-hot champion of the tobacco society in this city. No man in the county is more generally known or stands higher than Mr. Reid, and as he has recently met with many misfortunes, there was a bit of sympathy displayed throughout the county and city in his behalf.

Democratic Hopes With.

There were hopes last night that Ben Freckman, Democratic candidate for Sheriff, might pull through, and apparently County Judge Bullock then had a fighting chance. With all the precincts heard from, however, to-day, though the reports of the race are unofficial, there seems little hope for the election of any Democrat on the county ticket, with most of the contested ballots favorable to Southgate.

Lexington City Results.

In the city, returns from all the precincts show that all the Democrats were elected except John J. Riley, Democratic candidate for Police Judge. On the face of the returns received, Riley is defeated by Butler T. Southgate, the Fusion candidate, by a majority of three votes, with most of the contested ballots favorable to Southgate.

"Billy" Klair Is Safe.

The Hon. W. F. Klair, Representative from the city, comes through triumphantly by a safe majority, while Democrats are beaten for Aldermen, Councilmen and members of the School Board are all elected by majorities of from 100 to 200 votes. The Fusionists have elected four each, the only notable defeat the Democrats being that of Squire A. J. Gorham, who was beaten by J. W. Coleman, Fusionist.

Democratic Mayor Contest.

There will doubtless be several contests instituted by the Democrats. The latest figures on the election given out to-day with all the precincts heard from in both city and county are those in which the Democrats are beaten. On the face of the returns received, the Fusion candidate, by a majority of three votes, with most of the contested ballots favorable to Southgate.

Kentucky Farmers Enjoy
Good Weather Conditions.

CORN CROP SHOWS A HEAVY INCREASE.

RECORD YIELD OF BURLEY TO-BACCO REPORTED.

MULES ARE HARD TO BUY.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 3.—(Special).—The year that is now ending has been a very favorable one for the Kentucky farmer, according to the monthly crop report from the State Department of Agriculture, which has just been issued here by Assistant Commissioner James W. Rankin. This is the last report that will go to the farmers for this year, as it is customary for the department to suspend its bulletin service during the winter months when there is practically nothing upon which to report. There was no recurrence of dry weather such as injured late crops to such a considerable extent last year. The report says in part:

Favorable Year.

On the whole the year has been a very favorable one for the farmer. The weather has been almost ideal farming weather since July 1, from which time this report covers. The drought of the last year was not evident, as enough rain fell during the month of July, and with the exception of some localities during August and the first part of September, when it was real dry, the farmers were enabled to harvest every crop and house it nicely.

Light Wheat Yield.

The average wheat yield for this State was not very heavy, being about eleven bushels. This should be increased, and can be made possible if the proper rotation of crops is practiced by the farmers.

Large Corn Acreage.

A large acreage of corn was planted this year, and in fact is the largest for many years, if not the largest yield ever planted, and more attention was given to seed selection and proper cultivation than ever before. I inaugurated a series of corn-growing contests for boys and girls and wherever they have been held they have been very successful. A number of counties are having corn shows, and it seems that Kentucky will be a contending rival against the great corn-growing States of the West. The average yield for the State this year is thirty bushels per acre.

The oats crop in Kentucky this year was a good one, against a complete failure of last year. An average yield for the State this year is twenty bushels per acre.

The hemp crop this year was excellent, being about the largest for a good many years. Good horses and mules in demand. All good weanling mules and horses are selling high, and prospects very flattering for farmers.

Builded County—No tobacco sold yesterday. Prospects very flattering for farmers.

Sixty-Third Anniversary Sale

Continues Throughout the Week.

New York Store Celebrates the Anniversary of Its Birth

With the Most Colossal Merchandising Event Ever Held In Louisville

Its Souvenirs Will Be Its Concessions In Prices.

Never in the history of retail merchandising in Louisville has there been such an overwhelming response to an underpriced sale, and there certainly never was greater preparations made or greater quantities of merchandise purchased. Profiting by the enormous demands made upon the supply of merchandise purchased for the anniversary sale of a year ago, the quantities for this sale have in almost every instance been doubled and trebled, and as quickly as the assortments are depleted, new merchandise from the storerooms is brought down to fill its place, and the public may come to-day expecting to receive values equally as attractive as those offered yesterday, and plenty of them.

DEMOCRATS Throughout Country Pleased With Kentucky Returns.

RESULT IN NEW YORK STATE HIGHLY GRATIFYING.

SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT LOSS IN MARYLAND REGRETTED.

SLAP AT STANDPATERS.

Washington, Nov. 3.—(Special).—The results of the elections yesterday were not so bad for the Democrats. In many cases they were entirely satisfactory. The return of Kentucky to the complete and absolute control of the Democratic party for years to come is the most notable of yesterday's results. The result in New York City and State should be highly gratifying to Democrats throughout the country.

The election of Judge Gaylor as Mayor of New York by 73,000 was all that could be expected. The defeat of the county Tammany ticket will work good for the National Democratic party in the future. Of late, and before Cleveland, Tammany Hall has been a menace to the Democrats of the Union in our national elections. Tammany Hall, entrenched by its fat and vast patronage, has been insolent and arrogant, and has never helped in twelve years the national Democratic ticket. It has always been for itself and the office, and has been for whatever in Bryan or Parker and the national Democratic candidates for the presidency.

Must Toe the Scratch.

Now that it is shorn of its power, it will be powerfully glad to come up to the scratch and support the national Democratic party. If it does not, it knows that the high-minded, decent Democrats of New York City will not support its ticket.

It can no longer depend upon its organization, superb as it may be, to win a local election. It is a local party, and its local election is its only chance. It is a party of good and earnest independent Democrats in New York. It is the recent election it took Judge Gaylor, Democrats. With the or wanted him, but because they knew that while he was a bit "crankish," he was an honest and upright man, and that the people of Greater New York were with him, and that he might pull their county ticket through. After doing this, the party could have devoted, therefore, its Maryland ammunition to States in the doubtful column. However, the Democrats have usually carried Maryland, and will probably continue to do so. Regardless of the negro vote, they have the brilliant example of the Louisville Democrats before them.

The Result In Maryland.

The worst defeat sustained by the Democrats was in Maryland. It is tempered by the Legislature going Democratic, thus fortunately insuring the return of Senator Rayner and the election of the Democrats to State offices, but the defeat of the disfranchising amendment will cause no little regret among Democrats. The adoption of the amendment, Maryland would be certain Democratic, eliminating as it would nine-tenths of the 50,000 negroes. The party could have devoted, therefore, its Maryland ammunition to States in the doubtful column. However, the Democrats have usually carried Maryland, and will probably continue to do so. Regardless of the negro vote, they have the brilliant example of the Louisville Democrats before them.

Result In Virginia.

The result in Virginia is more than gratifying to Democrats for this is the State that President Taft set out to carry.

Will Encourage Insurgents.

Politicians here feel that the outcome in Massachusetts will encourage the insurgents in the House and Senate greatly this winter. They will, without question, feel that there is strong public sentiment back of their demands which they made strenuously in the special session that duties be reduced in accordance with the promises of the Chicago platform.

Labor questions and the income tax entered to some extent into the results in Massachusetts, but it is generally admitted that the chief cause of the cutting down of Gov. Draper's vote was the strength of the movement for the tariff revision. It is clear from the outcome of the election that the movement led by Eugene E. Foss, who left the Republican party because of the tariff, and took the nomination as Lieutenant Governor of the Democratic ticket, had powerful support.

The Post movement in Massachusetts is the forerunner of combinations of Democrats and insurgents. Republicans in other parts of the country and the coming year in various congresses will be the result. The movement is strong against high tariff and the tariff revision, and the tariff revision is the chief cause of the cutting down of Gov. Draper's vote.

On Again, Off Again.

While the President will arrive in Washington a week from to-day from his country-wide tour, he will leave the next day for some Connecticut engagements which will last four days. He will be ready for the incoming Congress and the preparation of his message, a week from Monday. The first Cabinet meeting will be the following Tuesday, when all the Cabinet members will be here. The Secretaries of State, Interior, Navy and Agriculture are here. The Postmaster General returns to-morrow. The Attorney General is expected the latter part of the week. The Secretary of the Navy is in Texas. The Secretary of War is with the President, and the Secretary of the Interior will return to his summer home in New Hampshire.

First New Tariff Decision.

The new tariff bill is having the effect designed by Senator Aldrich and his assistants. When there is a question of doubt, the tariff is lowered. The effect of a Philadelphia firm imported some decorated wall paper. The collector appraised it at 44 cents a pound, and the importer appealed to the United States Board of Appraisers on the ground that the duty should be but 35 per cent. ad valorem. The decision of the collector was affirmed. This is the first decision under the new tariff.

New Office Building.

The project for the erection of a big modern office building under Southern trust is taking definite shape. The structure will not be erected by the Southern Commercial Congress, as has been stated, but by the Southern Building Corporation, of which T. F. Schneider is president. It is part of the plan, however, that the Southern Commercial Congress shall occupy part of the building and hold its sessions there, but only as a tenant. The Congress will be a stockholder, however.

To consider a proposition to raise $150,000 of the building fund in this city, the building committee of the Washington Chamber of Commerce has been called to meet Friday. The committee will listen to statements of President Schneider and Charles A. Douglas, A. E. L. Leckie and Robert H. McNeill, stockholders in the corporation. The corporation proposes to procure the remainder of the necessary funds from interested parties and organizations throughout the South.

STORIES OF THE TOWN.

The Horse Show is responsible for at least two fall weddings which have attracted more local interest. They are those of Miss Suzanne Henning, who is to wed the Marquis de Charette on November 11 in New York, and of Miss Emily Bedford, the pretty New York girl, who will marry Preston Davis some time this fall.

The Marquis first saw Miss Henning while she was driving at the Horse Show a few years ago. He was attracted by the distinction of being the daughter of the Marquis de Charette, and he came over to Louisville to visit some of his maternal relatives—his mother is "Tennessee"—and immediately smitten. He didn't go home until he had secured a promise more or less definite.

It wasn't exactly that way with Mr. Davis. He was here and Miss Bedford fortunately came to him. They were introduced at a luncheon given by the Horse Show visitors, and the rest followed.

It was a long time before the two were married. Miss Bedford was a very difficult girl to win, and it was not until she had been wooed for some time that she gave her heart to the man who had won her.

This story might have been used with greater effect two or three days ago, but since the election turned out as it did it will still do so.

Paul is a youngster who lives within a few feet of the High School Park, and it is supposed that the football fever had extended to him. He was seen yesterday with a group of boys who were in the neighborhood. With this in mind one of his uncles, a crowd-up on several youngsters, asked him one day.

"Who are you for, Manual or High School?"

"I'm for High School," was the sturdy reply.

Of course he is still.

A well-known woman who lives not far from Second and Hill streets was the hostess at a dinner party the other evening. The dinner was all that could be desired, and when the table was cleared for the dessert her face was wreathed in smiles such as always adorn the countenance of her who has arranged a successful social affair.

Pretty soon the maid, a colored girl, came in and whispered something to her mistress. The latter excused herself hastily and went out into the servant's quarters. Finally, after several minutes' absence, during which the hostess tried to start several conversations, she returned with a smile.

"I'm sorry, but I have to leave," she said. "Somebody has stolen the ice cream."

Of course, the guests rose at once, assuring her that they had real reason for their departure. As for the hostess, she has had her eye on several youngsters in the neighborhood who she suspects carried the Halloween idea a little too far for her.

OFFICIAL COUNT

Shows That James E. Burke Received 1,531 Votes.

JEFFERSONVILLE DEMOCRATS DELIGHTED WITH RESULT.

REPUBLICANS WIN VICTORY IN PORT FULTON.

RESULTS IN CLARKSVILLE.

The official count of the vote cast in Jeffersonville on Tuesday, when the Democrats swept everything in sight, was but little different from that published yesterday morning. This was carefully gathered by the Democratic City Central Committee at the headquarters in the building. The official vote showed James E. Burke, received the largest number of votes—1,531. The revision shows that Clarence E. Howard, candidate for Councilman-at-Large, had the largest margin, 526, which was four more than the margin of the other candidates. Mr. Young, who was thought to be in the lead, had on the official count. Each, however, received the same number of votes—1,513.

A comparison with the vote cast in 1905, the last city election, shows the total for Mayor was 2,545 on Tuesday and 2,366 four years ago. In 1905 Dr. E. N. Flynn defeated Henry A. Burt; the latter a Democrat, by 160, while the official majority of Mr. Burke over William L. Samuels was 517. At Tuesday's election 178 more votes were cast than in 1905, but Mr. Burke received 285 more than Dr. Flynn, while Mr. Samuels received 87 less than Mr. Burt in 1905.

Burke, when asked yesterday if he desired to give out any statement, replied that he did not at this time, although he might later on. He desired to be understood as being under the greatest obligations to those who aided him in his campaign, and he desired to be understood as being under the greatest obligations to those who aided him in his campaign, and he desired to be understood as being under the greatest obligations to those who aided him in his campaign.

Results in Suburbs.

Port Fulton, Ind., the eastern suburb of Jeffersonville, which was formerly regarded as a Democratic Gibraltar, but has been degenerating for the past few years, went badly wrong at the election. The Democrats, who were electing everything excepting the Mayor, and two of the five trustees. Local issues being taken into account, the vote was as follows:

For Treasurer—Edwin B. McCarty, Democrat, 112; Peter, Republican, 12; Adams' majority, 10. For Clerk—Eugene McDunn, Democrat, 12; Webster, Republican, 157; Tipton, Republican, 23.

For Trustee—For Marshall—James Everlove, Democrat, 117; Stapleton, Democrat, 115; Everlove, Democrat, 107; George Dunham, Republican, 118; Dunham's majority, 11. For Trustee—For Mayor—Edward J. Houser, Democrat, 90; Ernest Mullings, Republican, 137; Mullings' majority, 47. For Trustee—For Mayor—Edward J. Houser, Democrat, 122; Frank Vincent, Republican, 105; Vincent's majority, 17.

In Clarksville, the western suburb, where the Republicans had a tie in nominating a candidate for Marshal and as it was a runoff election, a hot battle was a bitter fight. The Democrats elected everything but one Trustee, James Brennan, nominee for the fourth ward. The ticket elected was as follows:

Clerk—Harry Sittles, Treasurer—Claude Mayfield, Marshal—John Hillard, Trustee—First ward, William Cole; Second ward, John Moore; Third ward, Arthur Howard; Fourth ward, Samuel Dierking; Fifth ward, Thomas J. Brend.

Only one ticket was in the field at Clarksville, Sellersburg, New Providence and Claysburg. In the latter, which is the northern suburb of Jeffersonville, Willis Burch, a negro, was elected Marshal. The majority of the population of the village is composed of his race.

Suffers Serious Injury.

Newton Jacobs, whose home is at 125 West Market street, Port Fulton, had a narrow escape from death at the Jeffersonville plant of the American Car and Foundry Company yesterday afternoon. He was badly hurt and is lying in a serious condition. Dr. W. M. Varble, the company's physician, said he feared the injured man had sustained severe injuries. Jacobs was employed in the steel plant and while working on a scaffold twenty feet above the ground in some manner fell. Three of his ribs on the left side were badly fractured and it is feared he has sustained serious internal injuries. An ambulance was called and he was taken to the hospital. The injured man is a son of Thomas D. Jacobs, a leading farmer, who lives in Clarksville near New Chapel. He has been married three years or more.

Funeral To-day.

The funeral of Abraham Hassan, who died at the home of his son, Walter Hassan, 1128 Spring street, Jeffersonville, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, will be conducted from the same place this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock by Rabbi H. G. Enlow, of the Temple Adath Israel, Louisville, which Mr. Hassan was a member. Following the services at the house the body will be taken to Louisville for burial at the Adath Israel cemetery on Russell street. At the grave the ritualistic work of Jeffersonville Lodge No. 362, B'nai B'rith, and the B'nai B'rith of Elks, will be said and the burial will be in charge of that body. The family has been notified by the B'nai B'rith of Elks and a like number by the Veterans' Volunteer Firemen's Association of Louisville, of which Mr. Hassan had been a member for many years.

NOTES OF THE NEWS FROM JEFFERSONVILLE.

REJOICING

By Democrats Over Victory Won in New Albany.

MR. GREENE TO MAKE ADMINISTRATION NONPARTISAN.

J. D. HARWOOD DIES FOLLOWING SURGICAL OPERATION.

TO ENLARGE BURIAL PLACE.

The Democrats of New Albany were rejoicing yesterday because of the great victory they had won over their Republican opponents on Tuesday. Newton A. Greene, who was elected Mayor, says he proposes to make his administration a nonpartisan one. Insofar as he can do so he will see that the Common Council carries out the anti-election law, which is the party that is to reduce the salary list of about $3,000 a year, by abolishing the offices City Judge, Controller, Board of Works and some other offices. Mr. Greene's friends are confident that he will make as good a Mayor as he has a Councilman. Greene has served from the Fifth ward for four years, and his record has been good. Charles Truhy defeated J. Fred Mann for City Clerk by 527 majority, which is the largest majority received by any Democrat on the ticket.

The Mayor being a Democrat and half of the Council being Democrats, the latter party will be in power for four years. It is not improbable that there will be a change in the Mayor and the police and fire departments. The Mayor will appoint a City Attorney, and Charles W. Schindler, who did good work for the party, is spoken of to succeed Judge John H. Weathers, the incumbent.

Democrats feel particularly grateful to Chairman John H. Cody, and his associates on the ticket, for their efficient work during the campaign. The canvass was conducted on a high plane, and the defeat of George W. Strack, who has served in the Common Council from the Second ward, was a surprise to his friends. Mr. Strack is chairman of the Republican City Committee, and has considerable power in local politics for many years.

Ben Jackson Leads Ticket.

Benjamin Jackson, the only Democratic candidate for Councilman-at-Large, who was elected, led the councilmatic ticket, receiving a total vote of 2,445, while Charles H. Newhouse, Democrat, received 2,445; Oscar Barth, Republican, 2,345; Levi M. Clapp, Democrat, 2,297; Arthur H. Armstrong, 2,129; and George W. Strack, Republican, 1,972.

In the vote for ward Councilman, the following candidates were elected:

First ward, George Fleischer, Republican; Second ward, George Steinhauser, Democrat; Third ward, Charles Borkenheim, Republican; Fourth ward, Edward Sanford, Democrat; Fifth ward, James M. Ferguson, Republican; Sixth ward, George H. Baker, Democrat; Seventh ward, William J. Kreutzer, Republican.

In the vote for ward George Fleischer, Republican, received a total vote of 395 and James Parsons, Democrat, 352.

Second ward, George E. Steinhauser, Democrat, 293; Charles H. Newhouse, Democrat, 293. Third ward, Charles Borkenheim, Republican, 245; John J. Dwyer, Democrat, 215.

Fourth ward, Edward Sanford, Democrat, 332; Thomas Cochran, Republican, 300. Fifth ward, James M. Ferguson, Republican, 245; John J. Dwyer, Democrat, 215.

Sixth ward, George H. Baker, Democrat, 280; George Seelinger, Republican, 245. Seventh ward, William J. Kreutzer, Democrat, 630; Charles F. Moore, Republican, 498.

To Enlarge Cemetery.

The regents of Fairview cemetery, New Albany, have concluded to enlarge that burial place, and with this in view they are purchasing a lot of property in the vicinity of the cemetery proper. Already enough ground has been secured to enlarge the cemetery, but the ground will be purchased soon, which will enable the regents to dispose of several hundred lots before the cemetery is closed.

There are only about seventy-five lots available for disposal in Fairview, and the regents are anxious to move to the new Buena Vista cemetery grounds laid out by Clarence Parsons, former city engineer of Louisville, but the plans for the new cemetery are not yet quite developed. However, it is certain that the cemetery will be enlarged and further away from the center of the city within a few years.

Death of John D. Harwood.

John D. Harwood, 60 years old, who resided for many years in New Albany, but was engaged in the wholesale produce business in Louisville, died last night at his home at 112 East Main street, New Albany, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Harwood is survived by three sons and two daughters. He was a man of upright character and esteemed by all who knew him. For many years he was a member of the Trinity M. E. church, and the funeral will be from that church.

REJOICING

By Democrats Over Victory Won in New Albany.

MR. GREENE TO MAKE ADMINISTRATION NONPARTISAN.

J. D. HARWOOD DIES FOLLOWING SURGICAL OPERATION.

TO ENLARGE BURIAL PLACE.

The Democrats of New Albany were rejoicing yesterday because of the great victory they had won over their Republican opponents on Tuesday. Newton A. Greene, who was elected Mayor, says he proposes to make his administration a nonpartisan one. Insofar as he can do so he will see that the Common Council carries out the anti-election law, which is the party that is to reduce the salary list of about $3,000 a year, by abolishing the offices City Judge, Controller, Board of Works and some other offices. Mr. Greene's friends are confident that he will make as good a Mayor as he has a Councilman. Greene has served from the Fifth ward for four years, and his record has been good. Charles Truhy defeated J. Fred Mann for City Clerk by 527 majority, which is the largest majority received by any Democrat on the ticket.

The Mayor being a Democrat and half of the Council being Democrats, the latter party will be in power for four years. It is not improbable that there will be a change in the Mayor and the police and fire departments. The Mayor will appoint a City Attorney, and Charles W. Schindler, who did good work for the party, is spoken of to succeed Judge John H. Weathers, the incumbent.

Democrats feel particularly grateful to Chairman John H. Cody, and his associates on the ticket, for their efficient work during the campaign. Fourth ward, Edward Sanford, Democrat, 332; Thomas Cochran, Republican, 300. Fifth ward, James M. Ferguson, Republican, 245; John J. Dwyer, Democrat, 215.

of the General Council, Joe D. Bradburn and W. B. Nordeman also will form a part of the outflowing stream of Republicans. Frank E. Stratton, the present City Auditor, will surrender this important post on the day Mayor-elect Head is inducted into office to Adolph Schmitt, the Auditor-elect, now deputy in the Controller's department. Owen Cochran, the present assistant City Auditor, will also surrender his position after Mr. Schmitt relieves Mr. Stratton.

At the city hall yesterday the Republicans, one and all, bore up bravely under the crushing defeat. Already desks are being cleaned, preparatory to the general evacuation of the fortress. Every Republican in the city hall admits that he was beaten fairly and squarely.

Louis Simms, Inspector of Weights and Measures, will retire. Louis Wiseman, Livestock Inspector, was elected for a term and will hold over.

Mr. Head Feels Fine, Thank You.

William O. Head, Mayor-elect, who enters upon his official duties November 15, was somewhat fatigued yesterday after the trying day of election. "How does it feel to be Mayor?" he was asked.

"I have not advanced to that stage," Mr. Head replied laughingly. "But how does it feel to know you are going to be Mayor?"

"Oh, I only think that responsibilities of great weight and importance are soon to rest upon me," came the ready reply.

Speaks From Tobacco Hoghead.

It developed yesterday that Mr. Head was treated to a little of the most pleasant nature when he appeared on the tobacco "hoghead" yesterday morning to look after his business affairs. He was greeted everywhere by all his old business associates and men from all walks of life who patting him on the back and indulging in the familiarities that make one feel at home. At the People's Tobacco Warehouse Mr. Head was given a royal reception. The entire force under him and many business men who came from every direction to wish him success. He was lifted to the hoghead and hoisted with tobacco—pronounced by one man the unexcelled platform—and called for a speech. Mr. Head responded readily with his brightest and best remarks and for reward was roundly applauded.

Grinstead Still Silent.

Mayor James F. Grinstead, who withdraws from the city hall in favor of his successful opponent, Mr. Head, declined to comment on the result of the election or the campaign leading up to it. He said it was all in the past and he was not concerned and there he proposed to let it remain. Mr. Grinstead smiled and seemed cheerful and in the best of health before the appearance of Dr. D. Borman at Democratic headquarters yesterday was a signal for three cheers and a hurrah. Dr. Borman, who is School Trustee, and John Gruber, as managers in the Eleventh and Twelfth wards, carried every factor in the election. Henry S. Bell, who was with Col. Whalen almost incessantly from the first to the last of the campaign, pays him a large bounty of praise for his excellent work on the behalf of the Democratic ticket, which swept all before it.

The Democrats had the greatest organization in the history of the party," said Mr. Bell last night. "Col. Whalen was responsible for the success of the campaign in a masterly manner. He devoted practically all of his time and energy to efforts to win the election. He was able to win the race. The magnitude of Col. Whalen's labors can hardly be accurately estimated. He was a great factor in the success of the Democratic ticket, working day and night with the tireless energy of an engine."

No Sore Spots.

Owen Tyler, who ran for Mayor on the Citizen's ticket, had little to say yesterday. He admitted that Head ran a great race, and said that he is deserving of the splendid victory. Said he in conclusion:

"I have no hard feelings toward any one and I trust that all the other candidates feel that way toward me and each other. Mr. Tyler's headquarters in the Tyler building on Jefferson street, between Third and Fourth avenues, were abolished the night before the election. At the headquarters formerly occupied by George D. Todd, candidate for Mayor on the Independent Republican ticket, there were no visible signs of life yesterday. All that remained was a placard to show that a campaign had been directed there were a few hundred cards with Mr. Todd's name and a disconnected telephone.

Quiet reigned at the campaign headquarters of the Democratic and Republican forces, victor and vanquished, at Third avenue and Jefferson street and Fifth and Market streets, in the Walker building, respectively.

Canvass Returns To-morrow.

Until to-morrow, when the Jefferson county Election Commission takes charge of them, the 225 ballot boxes taken to the courthouses of the Tuesday night from that number of voting precincts in the city and county are under guard of representatives of the Democratic and Republican parties. The commission to-morrow will begin the work of officially canvassing the vote so as to certify the results to the Secretary of State and to the county clerk. The Democratic officers-elect will take their oaths. The members of the commission are Sheriff George Cross, Fred Porch, Democratic member, and Lewis C. Humphrey, Republican member. The commission adjourned at 5 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon to reconvene to-morrow.

The last of the ballot boxes to be returned to the office of the County Clerk, Mark H. McChesney, was received at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and added to the stack in the big room in the basement of the courthouse. It was from a Highland Park precinct. The Republican interests are looked after by deputy County Clerks, detailed to the work by their chief. R. C. Nichols had that duty yesterday. Six Democratic interest executives are detailed to look after things. They are T. M. Pythian, Richard J. Murray, Russell Gains, Patrick Ridge, William Schmitt and Ed. Bots. They do eight-hour shifts each and will serve until the election commission takes charge.

ORVILLE STIVERS ELECTED
SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.

Has Plurality Over Simms, Republican, and Also Defeats Mrs. Stonestreet.

Practically complete returns from Jefferson county outside of Louisville show that Orville Stivers, Democratic nominee for Superintendent of Schools outside of Louisville, was elected by a plurality of 855. These figures are shown with returns from all but O'Bannon and Woods as to Stivers and H. Simms, the Republican nominee. Stivers full vote from twenty-eight of the thirty precincts is 3,348, while Simms' complete vote is 2,493. Mrs. Rosa Stonestreet, the present County Superintendent, who ran independent, is reported as having received 1,130 votes. No returns were given for precincts where no returns were given for.

Mrs. Stonestreet. In ten of the precincts she is given the benefit of the doubt, the difference between the total vote for the two party nominees and the total vote for the two party candidates standing on the ballot immediately ahead of the Superintendent's race. In the Cross Roads precinct there was no difference apparently. The fourth column of the table shows these possible votes for Mrs. Stonestreet totaling 244. Giving these to her, she would have a grand total of 1,374. It is hardly likely that the two missing precincts would change the comparative result, so that it is safe to say that Mr. Stivers, against whom such a fight was made, was elected Superintendent of the Jefferson county schools. The table is as follows:

NEW GENERAL COUNCIL ELECTED TUESDAY.

Will Be Sworn In At Same Time That W. O. Head Takes the Oath.

The new Democratic General Council which goes into office with William O. Head in two weeks is made up as follows:

Aldermen.

John H. Buschmeyer, physician; B. J. Campbell, president Kentucky Wall Plaster Company; J. M. Treas, capitalist; Fred Leaser, building contractor; C. W. White, lawyer; Henry A. Kremer, stone mason; J. William Miller, grocer; Ben Brunneve, grocer and feed store; George B. Conner, painter; Bradley-Gilbert Company; John M. Clifford, district deputy Modern Woodmen of America; Samuel Tiedrich, secretary and treasurer Klee-Coman Company; R. Guy Parker, president Parker Transfer Company.

Councilmen.

W. P. Graves, livestock broker; John Neuhauer, marble cutter; Charles Mack, baker; Charles O. Roper, physician; William M. Boher, with L. D. Bax, Undertaker; Philip J. Fleig, King, special agent New York Life Insurance Company; Thomas J. Garvey, plumber; J. A. Snyder, druggist; Frank Coburn, clerk auditor of the Louisville and Nashville railroad; Samuel C. Tate, lawyer; Samuel Green, lawyer; T. J. Morrow, Jr., manager Contract Teaming Company; M. J. McHenry, proprietor D. C. Colton, proprietor Broadway Hotel; Randolph D. Thomas, chief clerk to chief engineer Louisville and Nashville railroad; Henry V. Wolf, with Southern Railway Company; F. C. Melton, physician; C. J. Finnegan, grocer; Ben J. Sand, druggist; Ben C. Watson, foreman Farmers' Home Journal.

THREE DEMOCRATS ON NEW PARK BOARD.

Gen. Castleman, D. F. Murphy and Louis Seebach Will Qualify This Month.

The new Board of Park Commissioners will probably organize late in November, that being the custom heretofore. Three Democratic members elected Tuesday will be added to the board. Gen. John B. Castleman, D. F. Murphy and Louis Seebach. The hold-over members are Charles Gates, Holm Brude and Frank Schuler. Southern knap, Thomas W. Bullitt and W. O. Bonnie retiring. Mr. Gates, who is vice president of the board, will probably call it together. Of those elected Tuesday, Gen. Castleman and Mr. Seebach are not without experience. Gen. Castleman served so long and so diligently on the board in the past and gave the parks so much of his attention that he has been called the "Father of the Parks." It was under his last administration that the boulevard and all the parks was proposed and options on land enough were secured to build the connecting driveway. These options have expired and it is said the land could not be bought for twice what the options were taken for.

'SQUIRE MEGLEMY
RAN AHEAD OF TICKET.

But District Was Republican and He Lost Election By Small Majority.

Magistrate Ed Meglenny, who seems to have been elected to make the returns of the Sixth, Sixth and Seventh wards, has been elected to the ticket in those wards. While Mr. Head lost the district by about 800, Mr. Meglenny seems to have lost it by 255, and the official returns may cut these figures down.

"Squire" Meglenny has made an excellent record during the past five years as a magistrate, and has served on numerous occasions as County Judge. He was one of the most active members of the Fiscal Court in working for pure milk for Louisville, helping to the fund with which to make the tuberculous tests that would mark out dairy herds that were healthy or otherwise.

Third Race—Fighting Bob, Belle Clem, Duquesne.
Fourth Race—Colloquy, Sedwell entry, Dr. Waldo Briggs.
Fifth Race—Warden, Minot, Gold Treasure.
Sixth Race—Joe Moser, Pal, Rebel Queen.
Best Bet—Southern Gold.

ATONIA, Ky., Nov. 3.—(Special.)

—This afternoon's racing furnished what may prove to be the start of one of the most bitter selling wars ever waged hereabouts. Several of the largest owners are interested in the boosting game and indications are that personal feeling will be brought into the matter in the near future. Gemmill, the odds-on favorite in the opening race, which finished second, was claimed by C. M. Jaeger, trainer for George Barnes, while Ceremonious, winner of the fourth race, was boosted $500 over his entered price by John Marklein, who appeared to be puffed because Beau Brummel, upon whose chances a small fortune had been wagered by him and his friends, had been beaten in the first half mile that Jockey Kennedy, who had the leg up on him, was forced to pull this inconsistent performer out of the race.

The racing itself was fairly formful, favorites and second choices about equal in dividing the winning honors. In the feature event, third on the program, a well-defined killing was attempted on Sinfran, but the good thing was almost left as the post when the start came and the best the mare could get was third place. A blanket finisher resulted in this event between T. M. Green and Marce Abe, and little Brannon, who had the leg up on the former, clearly outside the Bedwell crack at the end.

Boca Grande, W. H. Fizer's Kentucky Derby possibility, carried off the winning honors in the second race to the satisfaction of the talent, who figured that any price was a good one against his chance, while the Shaughraun, the only other favorite to catch the judges' eyes, was returned the winner in the closing event.

Jockey Vincent Powers, credited with being the riding star of the country, was at the track to-day, having run down from New York on a flying visit to his father, who has a string of horses quartered here. The lad, who is at present under the ban with the Eastern Jockey Club, feels confident that he will be reinstated at the next meeting of the stewards, and in that event it is his intention to ride as a free lance during the forthcoming meeting at Jacksonville, where he brings the things that Sam Hildreth will not ship to the coast, as was at first intimated, but will winter his horses at the Sheepshead Bay course.

JOE CANTILLON TO BE MINNEAPOLIS BOSS.

Milwaukee, Nov. 3.—Joe Cantillon, former manager of the Brewers, and recently departed from the leadership of the Washington American League team will pilot the Minneapolis club next year. Cantillon owns a big interest in the Minneapolis club, and it is natural that he should wish to take personal charge of the team, now that his managerial days in the big show are over. He has shipped many Washington players to the Flour City, and has been a nucleus for a championship club next summer.

Auto Woman's Arm Broken.
Atlanta, Nov. 3.—Only one accident marred the automobile trip into Atlanta, Mrs. F. D. Hughes, of Brooklyn, who, with her husband, made the run from New York to Atlanta, while cranking her car at Commerce, Ga., had her arm broken. She continued the run to Decatur, where her car was attended to, and with it bandaged, she finished the trip into Atlanta.

The second race resulted in a stirring contest between W. H. Fizer's Kentucky Derby candidate, Boca Grande, and the speedy filly, Ethel D., the latter leading the best-footed son of Sempronius for five-eighths of a mile and giving the backers of Boca Grande, the odds-on favorite, a touch of heart failure by looking like a sure winner. Boca Grande, however, ran the leader when ready and was going up in the last quarter, but was unable to rival the Canadian circuit and quoted at 60 to 1, easily dropped in third pocket, only five of the original ten entrants accepted the issue, the balance drawing away from the first two placed horses.

Sinfran Gets Bad Start.

Sinfran, the favorite in the third, was almost entirely left when the race was released, and though she ran a great race thereafter the Stockier filly was unable to make up the lost ground, and third was the best she could get. Marce Abe, favored by the start and running to best form, took command at once and opened up what for a time looked like a winning lead. Turning for home the Bedwell sprinter showed signs of tiring, and little Brannon, quick to take advantage of the distress signals hung out by the leader, sent T. M. Green after him with a rattle, with the result that the Brewitt colt was returned the winner after a mild brush. A crowd of "wise money" was wagered on Sinfran, but whatever chances she might have had were lost at the start. Marce Abe was also well supported, but those close to the Bedwell stable.

Ceremonious Is Improving.

Paul Miles slipped over a sleeper on the unsuspecting bookmakers in the fourth, and as a result cleaned up hand. Ceremonious was the "red in pickle" for this occasion, and the son of Sempronius showed marked improvement over recent starts, winning away off. Hine looked all over the victor after Beau Brummel took him, but was unable to stall off the winner's rush. Ida May also showed marked improvement. Ludhiana experienced a world of early interference, which was responsible for her failure to get inside the money, but closed up to a big gap in the stretch and was as strong at the end.

My Gal Beats Autumn Rose.

Fifteen starters accepted the issue in the fifth, which was a mile affair for the babies. My Gal, from the barn of Wm. Fizer, was returned the winner in a sensational drive from Autumn Rose. The latter had the foot of her party for the greater portion of the journey, never losing the lead until she was overtaken by the hung unexpectedly, and was passed by the winner, Lady McNally, but badly forced the pace to the head of the stretch, but had little trouble saving the show, and was as strong at the end as at the start.

Who will be promoted from scout to leader of the Red Sox team for 1910.

LATONIA FORM CHART.

LATONIA, Ky., Nov. 3.—Twenty-first day of Latonia Jockey Club's fall meeting. Scheduled for twenty-four days. Weather clear; track fast.

Presiding Judge, Chas. F. Price; Associate Judge and Handicapper, John Dillon; Starter, Jake Holtman.

199—FIRST RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse $200. For 2-year-olds and up; selling. Start good; won driving; place same. Winner, H. Schreiber's b. g., 4, by Sain-Florence Dickey, trained by C. J. Casey. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:24.5; 1:41.5; 1:58.5.

108	Grenade	102	5	1	1	1	1	1	1

Dargin followed Gemmill closely the first three-quarters, and, standing a final drive gamely, won in the closing strides. Gemmill showed the most early speed, but tired after going three-quarters. Descom was shuffled back soon after the start and closed up a good gap the last quarter. Deuce finished last, but was a good deal better than he looked. Cladborne was poorly and was never prominent. C. A. Leiman was outpaced all the way. Scratched: Judge Walton, Belle Clem, Galvaca, Royal Report and Ben K. Steet.

200—SECOND RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse $200. For 2-year-olds. Start good. Won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

Boca Grande had to be hard ridden the first half, but gained steadily and won well in hand near the end. Ethel D., speedy, dashed into a good lead soon after the start and lasted well in the final drive. Sinfran closed up a big gap the last quarter and was a good deal better than he looked. Cladborne was poorly and was never prominent. C. A. Leiman was outpaced all the way. Scratched: Judge Walton, Belle Clem, Galvaca, Royal Report and Ben K. Steet.

201—THIRD RACE—Six furlongs. Purse $200. For 2-year-olds. Start good. Won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

107	Serenade	101	7	1	1	1	1	1	1
108	Lincoln	101	8	1	1	1	1	1	1

T. M. Green, showing sudden improvement, was close up for the entire trip and up in the last quarter. Marce Abe showed the most early speed and might have won had Tapin not tried to interfere with T. M. Green. Sinfran, left at the post, put up a winning performance and finished good. Cladborne was a first time out in a long time. Austin Sturtevant ran fairly well. Corley quit after going a half. The others were beaten off. Overweight: Corley.

202—FOURTH RACE—One mile. Purse $200. For 2-year-olds. Start good. Won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

109	Beau Brummel	108	9	1	1	1	1	1	1

Ceremonious, running in much improved form and well handled, was the leader closely to the wire and won a way in the last quarter. Heine was in forward contention most of the way and tired slightly last furlong. Ida May had to go wide from a slow beginning and finished good. Beau Brummel was leading and going well when he was and was eased up. Scratched: Ottilie.

203—FIFTH RACE—One mile. Purse $200. For 2-year-olds. Start good. Won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

My Gal was lucky to escape interference, moved around others at the stretch and was the leader closely to the wire and won a way in the last quarter. Lady McNally was prominent the entire trip and put up a good performance. Sinfran was in close quarters the last quarter and was a good deal better than he looked. Cladborne was poorly and was never prominent. C. A. Leiman was outpaced all the way. Scratched: Ottilie.

204—SIXTH RACE—One mile. Purse $200. For 2-year-olds. Start good. Won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

109	Ida May	108	9	1	1	1	1	1	1

The Shaughraun, running in his best form under a good ride, was forced to go wide on the first turn and overcame interference, finished gamely and won a way in the last quarter. Cull had no mishaps and was the best of the start and showing good speed, held on gamely the entire trip. Cull had no mishaps and ran fairly well. John E. McMillan closed up a big gap and was in a jam most of the way. Brannon, who was the favorite, was out of the race after going three-quarters. Kennelwick was responsible for much of the interference.

Ing. Calash, the favorite, was outrun all the way, finishing back.

The Shaughraun Beats Kokomo.

The talent clashed in the closing race, when the Shaughraun, in a long-delayed stretch race, just did nip Kokomo out of the winner's position of the purse. The Strode ran, after being out of the lead, but was unable to close up a big gap in the final quarter and outgamed the leader in a wild drive. Kokomo looked all over the winner, but was unable to stall off the Shaughraun's determined rush. Cull, though living long, had no chance to make a play for the lead, but was forced to go wide from a slow beginning and finished good. Beau Brummel was leading and going well when he was and was eased up. Scratched: Ottilie.

JIM HART MENTIONED
AS HEAD OF LEAGUE.

JAMES A. HART has been spoken of as a candidate for the office of president of the National Baseball League. He is named as successor to John A. Heydler, who took the place made vacant by Harry Pulliam's death. Friends of the former Chicago baseball club president point out that Hart has been out of active association with the game long enough to keep him clear of partisanship and to soften any of the old feuds that may have existed between warring owners and club presidents in his time. He always has taken a keen interest in baseball and is regarded by many as one of the best-informed men on baseball in the country. He is said to be more familiar than any one on its rules and its history. It was Hart's logic which settled many a quarrel in former days. His coolness under fire and his steadiness are qualities which have given him a strong boost toward the chair.

FIFTH RACE—One mile; selling. Start good; won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

SIXTH RACE—One mile; selling. Start good; won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

SIXTH RACE—One mile; selling. Start good; won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

SIXTH RACE—One mile; selling. Start good; won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

SIXTH RACE—One mile; selling. Start good; won driving; place same. Winner, W. H. Fizer's b. c., 2, by Sempronius, trained by W. H. Fizer. Value to winner, $225. Fractional time, 1:25.5; 1:42.5; 1:59.5; 2:16.5.

MIT FOUND DEAD
NEAR SAVANNAH, GA.

G. Leist, Eccentric Man, Suspects In Room Where His Will Was Written On Wall.

Manah, Ga., Nov. 2.—Peter G. who claimed to be a dozen trades and professions, but who was a hermit, was dead at his home, near Savannah. He had been dead since Monday. He was seated in a chair, appearing at the wall of his room which he had written his will, leaving a property, which is considerable, to his son, who is in Schlatschman, Ga., in view of his death, to Henry Drey, Brooklyn, N. Y. Two hungry burglars were guarding the door and broke the police with their fingers, and more ago Leist's wife killed himself by blowing out her brains with a pistol. He was away from home again after an acquaintance of hours and was at the time of his seeking a divorce. He had separated from his wife, who had become a hermit, though he had been much for the society of others.

DEAD DRUGGIST DIES
AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

The funeral of Albert J. Scheffelin, who retired druggist and well-known of Louisville, will be conducted tomorrow at 2 o'clock at the residence of his sister, Mrs. C. A. Kressmer, 1009 Jefferson avenue. Dr. W. H. Ramsey, of the Church of the Messiah, will officiate, and the burial will be in the cemetery. Mr. Scheffelin was a life member of the N. A. R. D., and an Elk. From each of these bodies will be the funeral this afternoon.

Scheffelin was 54 years of age and when in good health. His death, however, was the result of a complication of diseases. For many years he had a stomachic ailment, which had become a serious one, and he had been in the hospital at Chestnut street, but to failing health retired about two ago.

ing, indicating slow demand for cash wheat, and the delay in the marketing of the crop, where elevator interests may begin buying the stock and selling for December. Big flour shipments are being made, and the price of flour stocks so far this week, as well as the shipping market's figures, are all seen favorable. Early buyers were forced to turn sellers. At present, time wheat is making a little headway for December, and that month had to break to the low point, at which time it was 64 cent under May, and in some markets rose 2 1/2 to 3 cents. Increase in Kansas City stocks in two days. The situation is one which promises to be a little better in the near future. The Northwest and Southwest spot selling at the lower prices.—Logan & Bryan to W. L. Lyons & Co.

CHICAGO.—Foreign news is positively favorable. The Argentine Republic is sending an exportable surplus is estimated at 20,000,000 bushels larger than last year. Sentiment tonight is bullish and unless the cash situation changes, the bears will doubtless be able to force futures still lower. We believe the corn situation is growing stronger and that corn will be in demand on any degree of confidence to justify any improvement in cash value. —Finley Barrett & Co.

CHICAGO.—The break in wheat is quite natural and merely the result of too much buying for the long term. There is too much oversight of a radical change in the very conditions

Chicago—The continued large receipts, lack of demand and the heaped coal rail from millers have altered the situation materially, and without some new stimulus on the part of the mills, it is probable that price rises will again irregularly lower. Cash markets to-day were again weak, while arrivals:

surplus supply is estimated at 20,000,000 bushels, 10 to 15 years ago, with Russian offerings continue large enough to allay all anxiety abroad and render any hope of export business from the cotton extremely remote.

COTTON COMMENT.

New York.—Cotton is worth the money, as in all probability it will sell higher; but so the general buying that has forced prices so rapid ably in the history of the New York exchange, while an early break of 30 points, following an initial advance, was followed in turn by renewed strength, with prices making new high Future stockmen toward the close of the month, the coffee futures price advanced 1/2 cent and more general as a result of rumors of a coffee shortage, and prices rose from 15.01c to 14.74c for January and from 14.96c to 14.74c for March contracts. The price per bushel. At the decline, however, leading South American coffee exporters, including Brazil, Colombia and Venezuela, denied the rumor and the market recovered. The price of January coffee rose to 15.10c and May 15.22c, to 17.47c points net for March. The market was quiet for the last few minutes with January closing at 15.06c and March at 15.06c. The coffee futures market closed with a low satisfaction, good conditions.

KING'S DAUGHTERS

IX UPON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8 AS TAG DAY.

Hope To Raise Handsome Sum For Prosecution of Their Work Among the Poor.

Tag day, the annual celebration of the King's Daughters of Louisville, for the benefit of the District Nurse Work, has been fixed for November 8. Preparations have been made by the King's Daughters to take double the money ever obtained through tag day, and the charity for which this celebration is held needs the money.

Tag day has been celebrated but two years, and thousands of dollars have been contributed by the people of Louisville to support this work, which considers neither color nor religious sect. Thousands of poor persons, unable to provide for their own in times of suffering, have been succored by the district nurses, and on each occasion when the King's Daughters have asked for aid, the public has answered generously. The coming tag day will mark a period in the collecting of charitable funds by public solicitation, as it is desired to make this year the banner year in the records of the King's Daughters.

In selecting Monday, November 8, for tag day, the King's Daughters feel that they have selected wisely in waiting for the election excitement to pass away, as well as choosing a season shortly before the holidays, and yet not too near. The amount of money for the coming year amount to $10,000, and it is hoped this amount will be obtained. Any contribution made on tag day will be received, one cent being the natural minimum, without a maximum limit.

DR. ANNA HOWARD SHAW TO SPEAK IN LOUISVILLE.

During Convention of Kentucky Woman Suffrage Association November 11 and 12.

One of the prominent women who will speak in Louisville in the interest of woman's suffrage during the convention of the Kentucky Woman's Suffrage Association, to be held here November 11 and 12, is Dr. Anna Howard Shaw. She will speak at the Woman's Club and at the Temple Adath Israel.

As coming of Dr. Shaw to Louisville will be an occasion of much interest to many, Dr. Shaw has taken a prominent part in philanthropic work for years.

Until a few years ago her chief labors were directed to general philanthropy and to religious work. But on the death of Susan E. Anthony she became one of the prime movers in the National Woman Suffrage Association, of which she has been the president for several years. In this office she has been instrumental in doing an immeasurable amount of good in improving industrial conditions for women workers.

ARGUMENTS NEXT

All Evidence Submitted in Brannin Will Contest.

FOUR HOURS AND TWO SPEAKERS FOR EACH SIDE.

EIGHT DAYS ALREADY GIVEN TO LONG TRIAL.

IN THE COURTS YESTERDAY.

Eight hours of arguments before the jury, to follow the delivering of instructions at 10 o'clock this morning, and the fate of the will of A. O. Brannin and his heirs will be in the hands of the twelve men who have heard the evidence patiently and carefully for the last eight days. The four hours of argument to the side were agreed upon by the counsel in the case yesterday when court adjourned at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Adjournment was taken following an argument in chambers over the motion of counsel for the propounder of the will to the jury to return to the court at 10 o'clock this morning. A Scott Bullitt, Democratic County Attorney-elect, will speak for the contestants. He will be succeeded by David W. Baird, the first to speak for the propounder. Baird will make the final address to the jury for the contestants and the concluding argument will be made by Charles H. Gibson, who is the attorney for the propounder. Much interest is shown in the arguments, and many of the younger lawyers, and many of them, as well as outsiders or friends of those interested in the case, are expected to attend today.

The bone of contention is as to whether A. O. Brannin, when he wrote his will, was of sound mind and of testamentary capacity. All the evidence in the case has depended for its admissibility on whether it bore out this phase of the suit or as to whether Mr. Brannin was subjected to undue influence in the writing of his will. Contestants in the case are Miss Louise O. Ridgely, granddaughter of the testator, Mrs. Bettie Shirley Ewing, also a granddaughter of the testator, and Mrs. Elizabeth Brannin Shirley, great-granddaughter. Propounders are John H. Brannin, executor of the will; Mrs. Louise O. Ridgely, daughter of the testator, A. O. Brannin; Mrs. Bettie Shirley Ewing, daughter of the testator, A. O. Brannin; and Mrs. Elizabeth Brannin Shirley, great-granddaughter of the testator. A. O. Brannin died in 1890, and his will was admitted to probate in 1891. His estate was valued at $200,000. His will was admitted to probate in 1891. His estate was valued at $200,000.

Col. Henry Started Day.

Col. Henry L. Stone, general counsel for the L. and N. railroad, and previously City Attorney for eight years, was the first witness. He lived as a neighbor of Mr. Brannin from 1880 until the death of the testator, knew him well and did a good deal of business for him. Mr. Brannin, he said, was a man of very strong intellect, of very vigorous mind. He said he remembered seeing him in a New York hotel in 1902 at the Brannin home, and noticed no impairment of his physical strength. Witness had no doubt of Brannin's testamentary capacity. He said he never knew a man as entirely free from being controlled by others as was Mr. Brannin.

John Middleton, another neighbor of Mr. Brannin, and whose wife was a niece of the testator, next testified. Mr. Brannin, he said, was very vigorous and could not be influenced easily, if at all. The testator's physical condition was such that he was capable of arriving at a decision on any matters he considered, and adhered to such judgments with unusual tenacity, he said. Witness said he had no doubt as to the testator's capacity.

Subjected To No Influences.

Grant Stauffer, general insurance agent for twenty-five years, rented a desk room to Mr. Brannin in his office at Fifth and Main streets for eight or nine years, from about 1890 on. After Mr. Brannin's death, he left his office and later rented from Mr. Brannin what is now the Walker building, for nearly two years. Then he remained in the same building. In the years of his acquaintance with Mr. Brannin, he said, he never saw him in a state of mind that would lead him to believe that he was being influenced by anyone. He said he never saw him in a state of mind that would lead him to believe that he was being influenced by anyone.

Gov. Willson Testifies.

Gov. Augustus E. Willson, the next witness, said he was born in 1834 and had lived in Louisville since 1870. He became acquainted with Mr. Brannin in 1876 and knew him up to the time of his death. He attended a card party at Mr. Brannin's home a short time before the testator's death. Said he: "A. O. Brannin was a very strong man, so far as I am a judge of character; strong man, strong mind, strong will."

Gov. Willson said he thought he knew Mr. Brannin intimately, but when he came to get on the witness stand he thought perhaps that acquaintance was not so intimate as he had supposed. However, Gov. Willson was a strong card for the propounders.

Charles Johnson, the next witness, said

SCHOOL days are the days when most of the important habits of life are formed. Teach your children the daily use of

and they will some day rise to call you blessed. It cleanses, beautifies and preserves the teeth and imparts purity and fragrance to the breath.

he had lived in Louisville for fifty-nine years. He knew Mr. Brannin. "He knew me well enough to call me Charlie," said the witness, "and I knew him well enough to call him 'Mr. A. O.'"

Mr. Brannin's Photograph.

The first witness put on by the contestants was Henry Klauber. He was shown a photograph of Mr. Brannin, which he said was a direct print or an enlargement from another photograph. The last time Mr. Brannin was photographed at the Klauber studio was in 1890. Mr. Marshall, examining the witness, asked:

"When people have their pictures taken, they always try to have them look as young as they can?"

"Usually," answered Mr. Klauber, "they do so." "Usually," answered Mr. Klauber, "they do so."

Mrs. Shirley Last Witness.

Mrs. Brannin Shirley took the stand and was asked as to the settlement of the estate of Mr. Brannin. Mr. Marshall, after some argument on the part of counsel as to admissibility of testimony, showed the witness a check for $3,657, dated April 5, 1899. It was out of this check, Mrs. Shirley said, that Mr. Brannin gave $3,000 to Mr. Brannin to hold for him until a rainy day. This money, she said, was for the purpose of rebuilding the house on the corner of Fifth and Main streets, which was destroyed by fire in 1890.

Well vs. K. and C. Cracker; appellant filed petition for rehearing.

Dersch, etc., vs. Miller, Kenton; appellee petition for rehearing.

Cincinnati, Newport and Covington Railway Company vs. Robert Cook, Campbell; appellant filed petition for rehearing; appellee filed answer thereto.

Creager's administrator vs. Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, etc., etc., appellant filed and oral argument; motion submitted.

Bennett vs. Bennett, Crittenden; appellee filed motion and affidavit for thirty days' extension to file petition for rehearing; motion submitted.

Elity Trust Company vs. Zehnder, Jefferson; appellee filed motion to dismiss appeal without prejudice; motion granted.

Ordered that court adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Court of Appeals Decisions.

Webb vs. Hardaway.—Filed October 15, 1909. (Not to be reported.) Appeal from Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Judge Lassing, affirming.

Lawson vs. Lawson.—Filed October 15, 1909. (To be reported.) Appeal from Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Judge Lassing, affirming.

Where one with full knowledge of his title seeks another ignorant of the fact that he has sold the property to him and says nothing, he will be precluded from thereafter setting up or asserting title thereto. And if the date of the purchase by a son he knew of the existence of the title which operated as a bar to his father, this knowledge would likewise operate as a bar against his asserting title to any of the property which his father might not lawfully convey.

Smith & Gibson vs. Baker, etc., etc., for appellee; Delsman & Delsman, D. D. Field for appellant.

County Board of Education of Mercer County vs. Allen, etc., and same vs. Commonwealth, etc.—Filed October 15, 1909. (To be reported.) Appeals from Mercer County Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Judge Lassing, affirming.

And if the date of the purchase by a son he knew of the existence of the title which operated as a bar to his father, this knowledge would likewise operate as a bar against his asserting title to any of the property which his father might not lawfully convey.

Smith & Gibson vs. Baker, etc., etc., for appellee; Delsman & Delsman, D. D. Field for appellant.

First Board of Education—Fund Paid to County Attorney for Schools—Motion Against for Rule to Stay Motion to Board of Education. Appeal from Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Judge Lassing, affirming.

The appeal is presented from order of the court below refusing to grant a writ of habeas corpus to a person who had been committed to the Mercer County Board of Education, which was paid by the Board of Education to the county attorney for the purpose of collecting a debt.

Appellee insists that section 44 of Civil Code does not apply, for the reason that appellant is in no sense a client of his. He has had no confidential relation with him and therefore appellant's real client, and it proceeded properly against him, and he is entitled to a writ of habeas corpus.

Hoffman vs. Commonwealth of Kentucky.—Filed October 15, 1909. (To be reported.) Appeal from Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Judge Settle, affirming.

Indictments—Jointly for Felony—Right to Demand Grand Jury—Power of Court to Order Sequestration—By Section 27, Criminal Code, where two or more indictments are jointly indicted for felony, any defendant is entitled to a separate trial, but the section is silent as to the right of the Commonwealth to separately try the defendants in such a case. At common law the Commonwealth and not the defendant in such cases had the right of trial, and the common law in this respect is not changed by the code. It follows, therefore, that a severance may be ordered at the instance of the Commonwealth in such a case, and where justice so requires, the court may order separate trials on its own motion without application therefor by either party.

Wardley, Redwine & Gourley, D. B. Redwine, Clarence Miller for appellant; James Branstetter, Attorney General, Tom H. McGregory, Assistant Attorney General, for appellee.

CAMPAIN STARTED BY YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Hopes To Place Four Hundred New Names On Enrollment Book Before November 12.

The Young Men's Christian Association, central department, has begun its annual membership campaign, which has become a fixed event in Louisville. The campaign is being conducted by the association, which has a large number of men and boys, who have at heart the growth and success of this institution. The campaign is being conducted by the association, which has a large number of men and boys, who have at heart the growth and success of this institution.

Special inducements will be offered prospective members in the way of reduced membership fees, good only until and on Friday, November 12, the "big day" of the canvass. Fifty young men, ten teams of five men each, are in the field struggling for supremacy. They are divided into the "Reds" and the "Blues," and there is also a special team known as the "Slid-Five." The identity of the latter and their plans have not been revealed, and their participation promises to impart special zest to the activities of the canvass.

One of the favorite slogans of the "400-in-a-Day Club" is "Every Team Wins Get His Eight Men."

Headquarters will be in the First Christian church lecture room, and C. H. Hamilton, financial secretary, will be in charge.
